ISAIAH with Dr Nathan Lovell

Develops an understanding of the historical and socio-political contexts of the writing prophets through a particular examination of the book of Isaiah, and explores the major theological developments of the period. Develops ability to understand and teach the Old Testament, introducing the major genre of poetic prophecy, as well as introducing several key hermeneutical principles.

MINISTRY 3A (LEADING GROUPS) with Rev. Dr Vuyani Sindo

Building on the foundations laid in Ministry 2B, this course looks at the group dynamics of Christian leadership. It seeks to help the student to understand leadership as a group phenomenon. Firstly, the student will be introduced to different theories of leadership, with the view of helping the student to understand the nature and the priorities of Christian leadership. Secondly, the student will be introduced to a number of practical realities of leadership, including the difference between leadership and management. It will also equip students with the necessary skills to set a vision for any particular ministry in which they may be involved, and to see that vision through to implementation.
